U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Weekes reported the daily use of Marijuana. He continues to attend Kintock, an outpatient drug and alcohol program in Newark. Mr. Weekes obtained employment for approximately two weeks as a helper/driver delivering alcohol beverages from a warehouse to various supermarkets and liquor stores in New Jersey. However, the employment was terminated because one of his state parole conditions prohibit him from being around alcohol. Mr. Weekes was encouraged to continue to seek employment by attending job fairs and utilizing community resources. We are not recommending any court action to be taken at this time. We will continue to monitor his compliance and notify Your Honor of any additional noncompliance.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
